Bros... wh, what...
What happened? The last time I saw something like this it was still in Ch. 1.

Yo, isn't this Jun the leader of the Valiant Eight? Nice to meet you.
You're Lei from Year 6?
What're you doing here?

Just patralling, and canfiscating some agitating illegal leaflets.

What did you say?
Bamp
Bro Jun...

No 5, are you all OK?
Shh don't let the gatekeeper hear us...
Sorry Bro Jun, we're too useless
Damn... how come we get caught even if we acted this early?

Sigh, I really over-estimated you It's just a reallocation why are you messing up?
Didn't you get that because you stole the paper? Would your misdeed lead to anything good?
Nonsense!
We didn't steal the paper! Someone framed us up!
Evidence? Can anybody prove that?
Eh
I understand your feelings of not wanting to be reallocated
So someone must have done the wrong thing out of goodwill It happens a lot
卷 Curl x2
卷
If you're really framed up, you'd better catch him/her first
Bro Jun, calm down! Don't be emotional!
Bastard, why, then, did you beat my bros like that...
Gritting
嗖嗖
嘣嘣

OK let's go. The daylight is near, and the gatekeeper is about to woke up
Oh right, I hope you have nothing dangerous in your bag
Want to check?
啪!
Whoosh---
No need not interested
Are we leaving like that? Without a thorough check?
Doesn't matter
It's boring to annihilate them in one attempt. I'm not Ling's dog. I just want to see, within this boring school...

what kind af drama will be an shaw taday
B, Bra Jun
Are yau OK?
Yes, their target was the leaflets they didn't get harsh
On the contrary is it real that yau have nathing special in your bag?
Of caurse, just textbaaks
But, we failed the battle af leaflets
We'll rearganise and wait far Hua far further discussion
OK
Yawn------
I didn't sleep well for the entire night
What did you do?
Here, Xiaalangbaa
Thanks anut!
T/N Small steamed buns with meat inside

Speaking of which, what is Sis Ling doing? It's late for breakfast
吱 Creak
I've already had it when you are washing
I'll go to school now.
Sis Ling?! What is that.. !!
Um? Something seems different
You silly, her braids become neat, without hanging down from her shoulders!
And she put on the read uniform for girls! Couldn't distinguish from a black and white comic though
Plus the badge of council president is outside!

Handsome!
Ah no!
Sis Ling you must did it far today's assessment, but even so it's still too early...
That's because today
There will be a war
Um?
Sis Ling must be hiding something from me. something big
What makes my maad worse is..
It seems this newcamer knows more than me!

Good morning, Grandpa Zhang
搖
Shake
晃
Shake
You're still coming here this early on the assessment day?
Yeah, thank you for your hard work
Nothing hard at all, it's nice to see kids love studying
I'm used to your class coming here this early every day
Thanks
Oh, here comes
our new study commissioner, Comrade Hong
Huh? Is this girl in your class?
Yes, she is just reallocated from another class
Do you have any problems getting up early?
Not at
Yawn---
Ugh! Not at all yawn---
No need to hold back

Good morning Prez Gang
Hello study commissioner!
Ah hello
Good morning just go to class room already
Did you Class 5-4 become top of Year 5 by this extro time every morning?
Probably But primary school teaching is easy so there's no need to study like that
What did you meon by that?
Hehe, we're always going forward
If it's merely for textbook knowledge we already finished those of Year 7.
What ?!
It's not very effective without teacher's guidance though
Let's go to classroom
Wait a minute
If that was true, what om I the study commissioner for?! I'm much weaker thon any of you!

Didn't I say? We're just going forword, but not deep
Plus, who said the study commissioner must be the one with the best grades?
But
I think the study commissioner should be someone who can inspire the people to study
Likewise, the PE commissioner should be someone who can inspire others to exercise. For example, you inspired your people's spirit by kissing during the school games. You are the real PE commissioner for that time.
I won't kiss anyone of your class!
That's not the point
As long as you sit on the platform, others will realise that even a rival we used to despise can become powerful.
So that they will refrain from arrogance and impetuosity, and work harder to preserve our prestige.
But sometimes exogenous factors may ruin everybody's effort
The deceit you used against us and class 2 in the school games
Despicable! Selfish!
In that case, I will use whatever I can to ensure our vested interest
I'm not denying that, but don't you love country metaphors? My rule is My country must win. Whatever may happen to other countries does not matter.

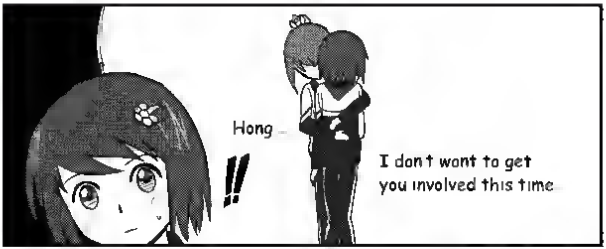
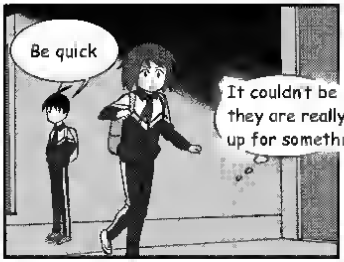
Moy I ask o question?
Go ahead
Has onyone told you thot you ore nothing like o primary school student?
Yo...
Comrade Hong
For us, the phrase 'primary school student'...
Isn't that just a camouflage to deceive the adults?

Of course, we still have much to learn from the adults...
As long as we become adults...
噔噔噔
Step x3
Um? Those people...
The Valiant Eight and Jun from my class?
Hehe, they came earlier than us. It doesn't seem like they're here for study or morning exercise.
If I remember correctly, that tall guy should be in our class now.
Yes, he's No.8
Good Comrade Study Commissioner, your mission now is to catch them and call No.8 back to classroom for morning reading.
Huh?
I don't allow anyone who is already a 5-4 member to mess up outside. Today is the big day of assessment...
Aren't their abnormal actions related to it...?



Hong
!!
I don't want to get you involved this time

If you don't feel like it I'll do
Wait! I'll do it!

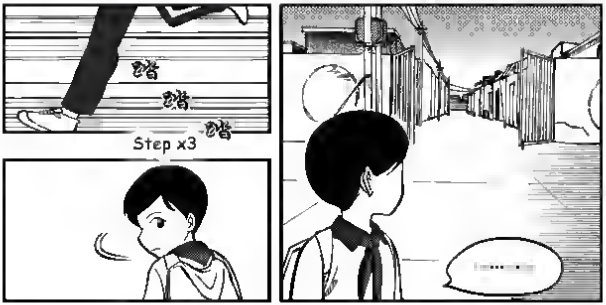


Be quick
It couldn't be they are really up for something

Your Majesty
Don't do anything dangerous!

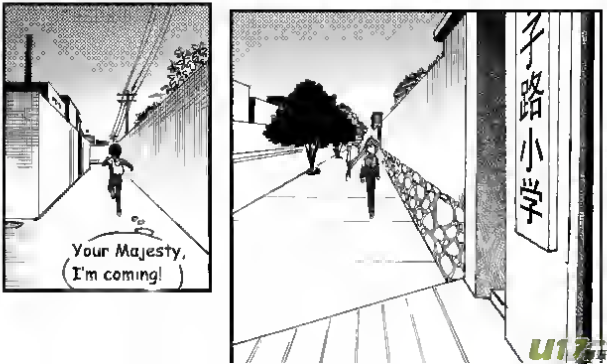
Ming-ming, you can go to that yard after school directly.

Got it!
You can go home together with that little prez, looking after each other.
No problem.
Yo-ho, smooth huh?!
You've got a poring now!
Flurried
It's not like that!
You can watch the moon in the yard together in the future how enjoyable.
Um?
Eunuch Ming what constellation is that?
That's the Plough, belonging to the constellation Ursa Major.
You're blushing! You must be over-imagining kid!!
That's enough!
More flurried
I imagined nothing!!
Just have your breakfast and go to school. Come home early in the evening.
OK!



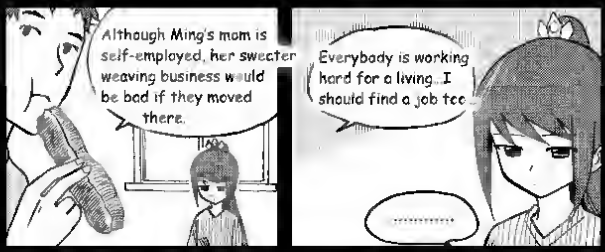
Step x3

Goodbye
No. Farewell!
The dorm estate!



Your Majesty, I'm coming!
Sign: zilu Primary School

Oh? So you don't know that Ming's dad resigned his job as well as his dorm? That's why they searched for a rent house there...
Resigned his job?
Yes, no idea whether they decided to live there or not



Although Ming's mom is self-employed, her sweater weaving business would be bad if they moved there.
Everybody is working hard for a living. I should find a job too
.....

Your Majesty! Hua Your Majesty!

We moved there! We can go together after school...

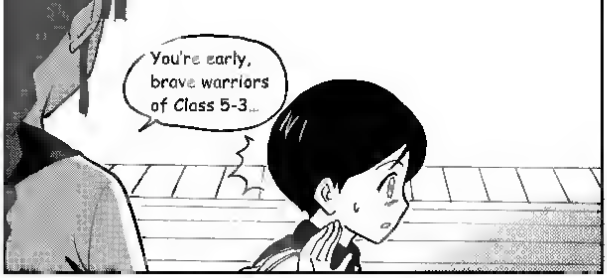
Eh?! That eyesight I, I didn't mean that, I mean eh, na...

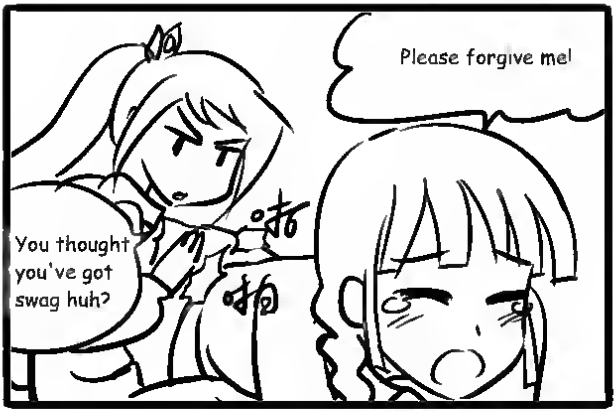


You're early, brave warriors of Class 5-3...

It seems I have won the first round.
!!?

Are you willing to do all the above?
Yes I am!

OK, congratulations now I declare you husband and wife!
Background watermark: Fake
Hooray!!

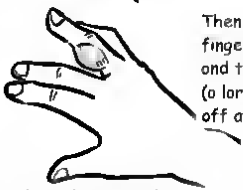


OK I wanted to draw following storyboards like that...
(That's a real train wreck...)

Things are not smooth recently...

At first I cought a cold

Then I had dermatitis... the ring finger of my right hand swelled and turned into blisters...
(a large piece of skin peeled off after healing up)



So there's nothing much in this release... nor big progress in the plot...
However it is indeed going forward, so please keep supporting my work~

T/N: Next Chapter: Vacillation

P.S. Don't speculate parings. It swings back and forth and it never was, and will never be, the focus of this series.
